HORSEMANSHIP CLINIC SERIES with LINDY BARRON

Fridays, May 5, 12, 19 (9:30am – 12:30pm)

This clinic will be presented as a series of three rides in a lesson format. Riders will have the opportunity to build on skills and progress weekly. This clinic is designed to complement the current Ranch Riding program running at MRAS.

Whether you are just developing or refining your skills, riders will do a series of exercises and riding drills with the goal of riding a pattern with finesse and ease.

The focus will be on developing better communication and consistent messaging with your horse. Transitions, guide, speed control and body control will be key elements in this clinic.

Clinic fee: Fee includes all three dates and cannot be separated into single rides for a reduced price

Current MRAS Riding Members $200 – Priority registration until April 5, 2023
(At date of registration and clinic date)

Non-Members $225

To register contact mras.equine@gmail.com. Once registered payment details will be sent to you. Payment secures your spot. Do not send payment until instructed to do so.

Maximum 10 Riders divided into two groups of five. Each group will ride 1.5 hours.
