

JILL BARRON

WORKING EQUITATION CLINIC

MAY 29 & 30, 2024

Jill's approach to training horses and riders blends classical techniques and natural horsemanship. She is an incredibly diverse equestrian. Her expertise has won her global accolades, which include the 2019 Andalusian World Cup (Las Vegas) Advanced Working Equitation Championship and the 2017 Haras Cup (Texas) Intermediate Working Equitation Championship. She has etched her name in the realm of Working Equitation and is fortunate to teach clinics and judge in many international destinations. She is the only judge in North America to hold three cards and Canada's only judge.

THE FIRST DAY OF THIS TWO DAY CLINIC WILL FOCUS ON FLATWORK AND HORSEMANSHIP SKILL AND THE SECOND DAY WILL BE OBSTACLE WORK.

WHETHER YOU ARE A SEASONED WORKING EQUITATION PARTICIPANT OR NEW TO THE SPORT THIS CLINIC WILL BE A GREAT EXPERIENCE. ANY BREED OR TYPE OF TACK WELCOME

For riders to gain the best experience riders will be assigned in groups of three riders with a ride time of 1 hour and 45 minutes each day. Groups will be arranged based on working equitation experience.

To register please contact lynnbrunton@gmail.com and include your level of experience in this sport. Registration opens April 1, 2024

1. I have attended a WE clinic in the past and am very experienced.
2. I have attended a WE clinic in the past and have average experience.
3. I have attended a WE clinic in the past but still very new to the sport.
4. I have not attended a WE clinic before.

Cost – Current MRAS Riding Members $360.00 Priority registration to April 10, 2024

Non- Riding Members $400.00

Auditors must register and pay prior to the day. No Walkins.

Current MRAS Riding Members $40.00

Non Riding Members $50

MRAS Equine Committee Clinic Coordinator - Sandra